DETAILED ACTION

1. All of the amendments filed from January 14, 2002 to present are improper. Only claims being amended are to be included in a 1.173 amendment.

2. The reissue oath/declaration filed with this application is defective because it fails to identify at least one error which is relied upon to support the reissue application. See 37 CFR 1.175(a)(1) and MPEP § 1414.

Applicant's error as set forth in the Declaration is insufficient. Just reciting claim 27 does not set forth an error. What is the problem (error) with the patent claims? The mere fact that they are not claim 27 is not acceptable. What structures did the patent claims have or lacked that the new claims eliminate or add to correct the error? Since the claims are broadened, what specifically does the added claims eliminate from the patent claims that are not needed for patentability?

3. Claims 1-46,48,49,53,55 and 56 are rejected as being based upon a defective reissue Declaration under 35 U.S.C. 251 as set forth above. See 37 CFR 1.175.

The nature of the defect(s) in the Declaration is set forth in the discussion above in this Office action.

4. Claims 1-46,48,49,53,55 and 56 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 251 as being an improper recapture of broadened claimed subject matter surrendered in the application for the patent upon which the present reissue is based. See Pannu v. Storz Instruments Inc., 258 F.3d 1366, 59 USPQ2d 1597 (Fed. Cir. 2001); Hester Industries, Inc. v. Stein, Inc., 142 F.3d 1472, 46 USPQ2d 1641 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Clement, 131 F.3d 1464, 45 USPQ2d 1161 (Fed. Cir. 1997); Ball Corp. v. United States, 729 F.2d 1429, 1436,

Art Unit: 3617

221 USPQ 289, 295 (Fed. Cir. 1984). A broadening aspect is present in the reissue which was not present in the application for patent. The record of the application for the patent shows that the broadening aspect (in the reissue) relates to subject matter that applicant previously surrendered during the prosecution of the application. Accordingly, the narrow scope of the claims in the patent was not an error within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. 251, and the broader scope surrendered in the application for the patent cannot be recaptured by the filing of the present reissue application.

The limitations added to the independent patent claims to make them allowable have been eliminated. Applicant surrendered claims that do not include at least the limitations that made one of the patent claims allowable.
